BISHOP'S SERVICE HEADQUARTERS—Four Society members confer at the New York City offices of Bishop's Service Inc., a confidential reporting service. Standing are William K. Harvey who represents Bishop's in Indiana, and Paul Dinsmore, who heads security for Duro-Test in New Jersey. Seated are William B. Caldwell, in charge of Bishop's in Florida, and Harold F. Swenson, president of Bishop's.

More Society Members Serving as Area Representatives For Bishop's Service

Harold F. Swenson (1941-47), president of Bishop's Service Inc., 111 Fourth Avenue, New York City, reports that several Society members in various sections of the U. S. are serving as area representatives of the organization.

The firm supplies a confidential reporting service and is one of the oldest in the U. S., having been established in 1898.

Among the recent appointees by Swenson is William B. Caldwell (1941-46), of 4739 San Amaro Drive, Coral Gables, Florida, who heads the Bishop's Service office at 1402 S.W. First Street, Miami.

Thomas J. Connor (1931-35), of 465 Seminole Street, Oradell, N. J. is the representative at Newark, N. J., with offices at 744 Broad Street.

William King Harvey (1940-47), of 1611 Northwood Drive, Indianapolis, directs Bishop's at 606 Merchants Bank Building, that city, while Ronald A. MacMillan (1939-45), of 19 Laurelwood Court, San Rafael, California, is in charge of the Bishop's office at 1255 Post Street, San Francisco.

Lloyd J. McCarthy (1951-65), of 42-32 Kissena Boulevard, Flushing, N. Y., is vice president at the home office at 111 Fourth Avenue, New York City.

Dennis E. McFeely (1941-44), of 11 Kings Drive, Kingston, Jamaica, West Indies, represents Bishop's there with offices at the Drapery House, 12 Tangerine Place, Kingston.

Swenson resides at 726 West Milton Avenue, Rahway, N. J.
